Example: Son of Charles Maclean, Solicitor London, born Edinburgh 1870, died Bournemouth 1950; son of Donald Maclean, Merchant Edinburgh, born Tobermory 1850, died Haddington 1920; son of Charles Maclaine, fisherman Tobermory, born Tiree 1825 ... etc.

² The following are eligible as members:

- a) Persons bearing by birth or marriage the surname MACLEAN in any of its various forms or spellings, or that of any one of the recognised Septs, adherents or dependents as follows:

BEATH, BEATON, BETHUNE, BETON, BLACK, CLANACHAN, GARVIE, GILLAN, GILLEAN, GILLIAN, GILLON, GILSEAN, LEAN, MACBEATH, MACBETH, MACBHEATH, MACCORMICH, MACFADDEN, MACFADYEN, MACFADZEAN, McFERGAN, MACGILVRA, MACGILVRAY, MACILDUY, MACILVORA, MACILVORAY, MACLERGAIN, MACPHADDEN, MACRAING, MACRANKIN, MACVEAGH, MACVEY, PATON, PATTEN, PEDEN, RANKEN, RANKIN, RANKINE, RANKING

- b) Persons bearing a surname other than MACLEAN but whose maternal parent, or grandparent, or great grandparent bore either the surname MACLEAN or one of the Sept names. The Council may admit on payment of the full subscription, a person with a more remote Maclean or Sept ancestry as an Associate Member, who shall have no vote in the affairs of the Association.
- c) Persons of other surnames intimately connected with the Clan may become Honorary Members at the discretion of the Council, but shall have no vote and pay no subscriptions.
- d) Male spouses of Clanswomen of the Association shall be eligible for Life Membership, but may hold no office except as provided by the Constitution and Rules.
- e) A person of full age, not otherwise qualified for admission under the Constitution and Rules, who desires to show his or her adherence to the Clan Maclean, may by the vote of the Council and on payment of the Life Subscription, be admitted to membership as an Adherent of the Association; but no such application may be considered unless it has been submitted in writing by no fewer than two Life Members who know the applicant personally, and unless the Council when calling the meeting at which it is to be considered. Adherents of the Association may not hold office or vote.
- f) All applications will be assessed for eligibility and ratified by the Association's Council at the next meeting following receipt of the application.
